

Directions: Cut out the front and back of the card as one piece, then fold in the center, and tape to complete. Each sheet make five (5) cards.

Ransom!	Ransom!	Ransom!	Ransom!	Ransom!
On what body of water is Algiers located?	What is a corsair?	What is the religion of Algiers?	Use a map. What Barbary state almost touches Spain?	Use a map. What Barbary state is bordered by Morocco and Tunis?
Mediterranean Sea	A pirate or a privateer—depending on your point of view	Islam	Morocco	Algiers

Ransom!

Use a map. Which Barbary state is closest to Egypt?

Tripoli

Ransom!

Use a map. Which Barbary state is between Algiers and Tripoli?

Tunis

Ransom!

You have been a good slave. I reward you with one point on the Tally.

Ransom!

You attempted to escape last year.
Too bad—
Lose one point

Ransom!

Who is the foreign minister of the United States?

John Jay

Ransom!

Who is your President now (in 1786)?

You don't have one!

Ransom!

As the Dey,
I answer to which ruler?

Grand Seigner, Sultan, Leader of the Ottoman Empire (all correct)

Ransom!

The Grand Seigner is the ruler of what Empire?

Ottoman Empire

Ransom!

I am the leader of Algiers. What is my title?

Dey

Ransom!

Name the man sent to negotiate your release.

John Lamb

Ransom!

A captain is worth how much to me in ransom?

$6,000

Ransom!

Why did John Lamb not succeed in your release?

Not enough ransom money

Ransom!

What has killed several of your people and many of mine?

Plague

Ransom!

What is the total amount of money I want for all of you?

$59,496 or almost $60,000

Ransom!

What is the name of your ship?

Dauphin

Ransom!

You are lucky to have lived for a while with the British Consul.
Name him.

Charles Logie

Ransom!

Which European country paid over $1 million to Algiers for peace?

Spain

Ransom!

Which European country tried to convince me that your revolution was NOT a just cause?

Great Britain

Ransom!

We don't worry about war with this country because it is so far away.

United States

Ransom!

Your Minister to France opposes paying tribute to us.
Name him.

Thomas Jefferson

Ransom!

Your men may have to work on board our cruisers (ships). Add one point.

Ransom!

Your negotiator should have given nice gifts to my men.
Lose one point.

Ransom!

The treaty signed in 1795 resulted in the United States agreeing to pay what?

Tribute

Ransom!

We have captured
several ships lately?

Add one point

Ransom!

Who encouraged your people to build a navy?

Thomas
Jefferson

Ransom!

I am so wealthy and happy today. A point for you!

Ransom!

Which of the Barbary states declared war against the United States?

Tripoli

Ransom!

Which American ship was lost in the war against Tripoli?

Philadelphia

Ransom!

Name the two types of payment countries must give to us.

Ransom &
Tribute

Ransom!

You are working so hard to gain your release. However your leaders seem totally inept. I feel sorry for you. I will give you one point.

Ransom!

The negotiator did not have enough money for you. Lose one point.

Ransom!

Which country protected your trade ships in the Mediterranean during your Revolution?

France

Ransom!

This man tried, but failed to form a confederation of European states to force us into "perpetual peace."

Thomas Jefferson

Ransom!

There are several powerful men in Algiers. What does the Mickelhassee do?

General of the Marine & Fortifications

Ransom!

There are several powerful men in Algiers. What does the Causnagee do?

Prime Minister, second only to the Dey

Ransom!

The Neapolitans are very active in trade.
What European state are they from?

Naples

Ransom!

Mr. O'Bryen is a wise man who understands that the United States must either go to war or pay for peace. What does he recommend?

Paying for Peace

Ransom!

Another ship was taken near the same time as the Dauphin.
Name her.

Maria

Ransom!

Who was the master of the Maria?

Isaac Stephens

Ransom!

You have been here
for several years now.
I will give you one point.

Ransom!

Your government appears to be slow in negotiating your release. I will give you one point.

Ransom!

John Jay
recommended reimbursing the British consul for the cost of his hospitality to you.
What is his name?

Charles Logie

Ransom!

I have heard that we raided the coast of Naples and took away new slaves and property. I am in a good mood. I give you one point.

Ransom!

We sail far and wide to gain more slaves and riches. I feel generous. A point for you.

Ransom!

Use a map. What Barbary state is bordered by Morocco and Tunis?

Algiers

Ransom!

Who was the U.S.
Minister to Great Britain in 1786?

John Adams

Ransom!

Which American said, "A naval force can never endanger our liberties, nor occasion bloodshed;
a land force would do both?"

Thomas
Jefferson

Ransom!

You have been in Algiers for several years and have learned our language.
What is it?

Arabic

Ransom!

Ransom!